

BONDS WORTH $250,000 LOST

Disappearance of Liberty Bonds Consigned to South Bend a Mystery.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 19.—The remarkable disappearance of $250,000 in Liberty bonds consigned by the First National bank, of Detroit, Mich., to the Studebaker corporation at South Bend, Ind., remained a mystery today although the loss was noted January 1. The disappearance was said to involve a clever robbery. The bonds, 25 in number and of the $10,000 denomination, bear numbers from 22,724 to 22,748.

Banks On Lookout.

Bankers and brokers throughout the country have been notified to be on the lookout for them. Postoffice records at South Bend are said to show that five registered packages were delivered to the Studebaker offices on January 4. The postmaster has five receipts purporting to show that Studebaker employees found four of the packages, but the fifth, which contained the bonds, was missing.

CHARGE ZONE VIOLATION.

Gene Wynn and George Riley are named in indictments returned by the grand jury in the fifth district court, alleging violation of the zone law. Returns on the indictments were made by sheriff's deputies Friday.

Y. W. C. A. BOARD PLANS CAMPAIGN

Annual Meeting and Banquet To Be Held In Gymnasium January 21.

The Y. W. C. A. board, of which Mrs. H. T. Bowie is president, had its regular meeting at the central building on Franklin street Thursday morning. Final plans were laid for the annual membership campaign, which opens January 14 and continues until January 21. The campaign will close with the annual association meeting and membership banquet, which will be held in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium on the evening of the 21st.

Campaign teams for the membership drive will consist of the regular standing committees headed by the present chairman, which are as follows: Extension, Mrs. M. A. Warner; physical, Mrs. Robert Holliday; house, Mrs. Frank P. Jones; summer camp, Mrs. H. B. Stinson; residence, Mrs. J. Knox; cafeteria, Mrs. B. H. Huffaker; membership, Mrs. R. B. Homan; travelers, Mrs. Horace A. Lay; war work, Mrs. W. A. Hawkins; and education, Mrs. C. H. Campbell.

The membership campaign is to begin on January 14. Teams for the campaign are to be composed of the standing committees of the association. On Monday afternoon the 10 women who compose these committees are to meet at a campaign tea at the Y. W. C. A. building for the purpose of discussing plans for the campaign. At present there are 1800 paid membership in the organization here. Mrs. J. A. Rawlings, chairman of the finance committee, gave a report which showed that the association's expenditures have come within the yearly budget.

Employment Bureau Work.
A report was also made from the employment bureau. It was announced that this bureau, which is operated free of all charge and in cooperation with the governmental bureau, has a great problem to face in placing girls in positions because of the fact that so many men are being discharged from the army and are returning to their former positions.

Exceedingly unique will be the entertainment given on February 1, which will be an all women minstrel. These minstrels will be assisted by the Business Women's club, given by the Business club. They will be directed by Miss Helena Huffaker and Miss Dora Gilbert, special secretaries, who have successfully directed such entertainments in the past. The plan is being forwarded by the extension committee, with Mrs. M. A. Warner as chairman. The club will be assisted in the minstrels by some of the city's best musical talent.

The entertainment is to be given for the purpose of raising the budget on which the various clubs of the Y. W. C. A. are planning their activities. This budget plan is the same used by the Y. M. C. A. and includes a number of ideas to promote the welfare of the members and the association generally.

There is to be roller skating two nights of each week at the Y. W. C. A. upon the arrival of the skates. This shipment is expected soon.

PLANS ARE MADE FOR EXTENDING LOCAL Y WORK

The first step in the city wide reorganization of the Y. W. C. A. Young Men's Christian association was brought about this week, when the central branch committee appointed to have charge of the affairs of this branch, had its meeting in the form of a luncheon in the Young Women's Christian association cafeteria. S. J. Brient, general secretary, explained the functions of the committee, and called attention to the fact that they would have charge of a large part of the interests of the local "Y." In fact, he said, "we have got to quit thinking of the Y. M. C. A. as merely a building on the corner of Missouri and Oregon. Our work is larger and bigger than this, and there should be a number of branches of this organization in the city, and the international convention has ruled that all of these shall be affiliated under one head, with a general board of directors representing each branch." G. P. Putnam was unanimously elected as chairman of the branch; Robert Lander, vice chairman, and C. W. Croon, secretary.

The financial basis for the year's work of the central branch was decided upon, and this will be submitted for approval of the general board at our next session on Monday night, the 13th.

FOURTH "Y" CONVENTION WILL MEET THIS MONTH

The fourth annual interstate convention of the Y. M. C. A. association, covering Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, will be held in El Paso January 17, 18 and 19, at the First Christian church. In addition to the local "Y" workers, there will be attendance about 100 delegates from the remainder of the territory, according to interstate secretary J. A. Graham, as well as the interstate committee composed of Jas. H. McNary, El Paso, president; Dr. B. H. Von Kleinsmidt, Tucson, vice president; L. W. Coggins, Phoenix, second vice president; C. M. Harvey, El Paso, recording secretary; W. M. Freck, Tucson, treasurer; J. H. Nations, El Paso, Cleveland E. Dodge, New York; J. L. Campbell, El Paso; M. B. Haines, Prescott; C. O. Cushman, Albuquerque; Dr. J. C. Norton, Phoenix; Arthur Newman, Bishop; G. H. Dowell, Warren; J. K. Bayles, Tucson; Roy Ammerman, Roswell; Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts, Las Vegas; J. B. Herndon, Albuquerque; S. J. Brient, El Paso; J. P. Hodgson, Morenci; Dr. L. B. Carr, Douglas; W. H. Archibald, Jerome; and the secretarial staff which includes W. H. Day, H. P. Demand, W. D. Thomas and J. L. Graham of El Paso.

San Francisco Farmer Assured Job In Watch Factory 'Making Faces'

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 16.—Pietro Oliva, a farmer of Colusa, Cal., came back among the cows and chickens today, after a whirl in the city that has left his faith in human nature intact.

Detectives Tom Hoarkorn and Ed Wiskelshill are the heroes of the plot that put for them would have had its climax in financial loss if not utter ruin to the unsuspecting farmer.

The way of the sunbeams are as an open book to these two sophisticated sleuths, so when their eyes clamped two of the best of them, talking entertainingly to a man whose appearance smacked of the untraveled lanes, they decided to play a hand in the game.

At a propitious moment they approached the "nooker." They questioned him regarding his new found friend, Oliva, was enthusiastic about them. They were "nice, fellows, friendly, kind, thoughtful and obliging." In vain did the detectives warn Oliva to stay away from his new pals.

"I've got a date to meet 'em in an hour," said Oliva. "Why, they have promised to get me a job."

"Where?"

"In a watch factory."

"What dollar?"

"Making faces."
